As representative from the FBI Laboratory, with Bureau authority, traveled to Jacksonville, Florida, and made a direct copy of the original tape recordings of 10/4/71 pertaining to conversations between the Jacksonville Airport control tower and the pilot of the hijacked aircraft.

A filtered copy of the tape recordings was reviewed and a transcript of the conversations to include all intelligible words has been made (copy attached). There are still some portions that are unintelligible and the FBI Laboratory is continuing its analysis of the tapes to determine if these unintelligible portions can be recovered.

On 10/18/71 the Washington Post contained an article pertaining to the FAA tapes and indicated the tapes contained a statement, "You can't win them all." No such comment was heard while listening to this recording.

ACTION: A filtered copy of the tape recordings and a transcript has been sent to the Jacksonville Division to determine if Agent personnel who were on the scene might be able to further identify unintelligible parts of this recording.

CIVIL NO. 6348

RECEIVED

NOV 11 1971

ORDER

CLERK'S OFFICE
NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE

Petitioners aver that they contemplate bringing a damage action against the United States, under the Federal Tort Claims Act, 28 U.S.C. §§ 2671 et seq., as soon as they are able to do so. Obviously, under the provisions of that Act, they will not be able to initiate such proceeding for approximately six (6) months. Accordingly, they have filed this petition, under Rule 27, Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, seeking both to perpetuate the testimony of certain individuals and to gain access to various items of tangible evidence.

With regard to the latter category, the United States has agreed to preserve the items sought, and certain exhibits attached to the United States' "Supplemental Brief in Opposition to Petition to Perpetuate Evidence" indicate that the necessary steps have been taken to insure that these items will, in fact, be preserved. It follows that the policy of Rule 27 will not be served by allowing petitioners to gain access at this time to the items of tangible evidence which they seek. Accordingly, the instant petition must be DENIED insofar as it seeks to discover, or otherwise gain immediate access to, any items of tangible evidence, and it is so ORDERED. The remainder of this discussion, then, will treat the instant petition as though it were one seeking solely to perpetuate the testimony of the individuals named therein.

The United States opposes the petition on the ground that it does not meet the requirements of Rule 27. More specifically, the United States contends that "[1]f the third requirement [of that rule], separately and distinctly expressed, is satisfied by a repetition of the statements made to satisfy the first requirement, the third requirement is rendered nugatory and meaningless. Obviously then, the fact that suit cannot be brought for six months is not a reason to perpetuate testimony. There must be more than a mere present inability to sue, and that additional showing has not been made here." Supplemental Brief of United States, supra, at 2.

This court cannot agree with the foregoing statement. After a lengthy analysis of the cases, beginning with the often-cited case of Hall v. Stout, 4 Del. Ch. R. 272, this court has concluded that present inability to institute suit is, by itself, sufficient "reason" for the perpetuation of testimony. "It is common knowledge that the lapse of time is replete with hazards and unexpected events. This is so regardless of the age, health or general status of an individual, and an allegation thereof, although helpful to the court in deciding the problem presented, is not fatal [sic]. The granting of a bill directing testimony in perpetuum rei memoriam is aimed principally at the uncertainties appended to the passage of time. The reasons which are stated for desiring to perpetuate the proposed testimony must show a danger of losing the evidence by delay. Ordinarily, a showing that the petitioner is presently unable to bring the expected action or cause it to be brought, is sufficient showing of the danger of the loss of evidence by delay. But when warranted by the circumstances, a showing that the persons with knowledge of the facts are aged or infirm, thus clearly indicating the danger that the evidence may be lost, is helpful. It is advisable, although not necessary, to show the existence of particular circumstances surrounding the condition of the evidence indicating an imminent danger of the loss of the evidence, in addition to the danger of loss attendant upon all evidence through lapse of time, for in such situations the court will readily be satisfied that the perpetuation of the testimony will prevent a failure or delay of justice.'" Petition of Ernst, 2 F.R.D. 447, 451 (S.D. Calif. 1942) (citation omitted) (emphasis added); accord: Westinghouse Mach. Co. v. Electric Storage Battery Co., 170 F. 430 (3rd Cir. 1909); Bowles v. Pure Oil Co., 5 F.R.D. 300 (E.D. Pa. 1946); Petition of Johanson Glove Co., 7 F.R.D. 156 (E.D. N.Y. 1945); see also Wright & Miller, Federal Practice and Procedure: Civil § 2072; Moore's Federal Practice, ¶ 27.03 through ¶ 27.09.

In the instant case petitioners need not, however, rely upon mere present inability to bring suit as the sole basis of their petition, for attached as "Exhibit C" to the United States' "Supplemental Brief in Opposition to Petition to Perpetuate Evidence" is an affidavit of Harold N. Bassett, Personnel Officer of the FBI, wherein he swears that, as far as is known to the FBI, the individuals whose testimony the instant petition seeks to perpetuate "have all been certified for strenuous physical exertion and dangerous assignments. . . ." Given this circumstance, "the court . . . [is] readily . . .

satisfied that the perpetuation of the testimony will prevent a failure or delay of justice." Petition of Ernst, supra.

There is, however, a serious problem in this case regarding just what testimony the petitioners desire to perpetuate, for, in the opinion of the court, neither the petition nor the proposed order submitted by petitioners sets forth with the requisite specificity the substance of the testimony sought to be elicited. Accordingly, before proceeding further in this matter, it is ORDERED that petitioners file with the court, for its consideration, a more detailed summary of what questions they intend to ask the prospective deponents in order to perpetuate their testimony. It is suggested that such summary be couched in the form of written interrogatories, which could be answered by the prospective deponents.

I readily understand the reasons which prompted Mr. Drosser to write and while I would like to respond to the points he raised, the matter involving the hijacking of a chartered aircraft to Jacksonville, Florida, on October 4th is currently the subject of court action. On November 1st U. S. District Judge Gerald E. Tjoflat, Middle District of Florida, Jacksonville, Florida, issued an order prohibiting all Government Agents and employees, including the FBI, from making any statements regarding the events set out in and surrounding the criminal indictment in this case.

As you requested, his letter is being returned.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Senator Hartke

The three deaths that was the result of the plane hijacking in Nashville Tennessee on October 4th was, in my opinion, caused by the negligince of the F.B.I.

As stated by [redacted] of the aircraft, it was likely that the hijacker would have killed his wife and himself, but had no reason to kill the pilot, Brent Downs. According to the tapes of the conversation between the pilot and the F.B.I., it was evident that lives were in danger if the plane was not refueled.

AT ST. LOUIS, MISSOURI

The St. Louis Division advised that on October 7, 1971, the files of the National Personnel Records Center (Military Branch), St. Louis, Missouri, revealed United States Air Force Reserve, an Air National Guard, record for GEORGE MALLORY GIFFE, JR., Air Force Service Number 25355391, who enlisted in the Tennessee National Guard, an Air Force Reserve, on December 3, 1954, for a period of three years. GIFFE was honorably discharged with an effective date of December 10, 1956, "Due to rejection for active military service (medical reasons)."

The record does not disclose any further information concerning the medical reason for this discharge nor does the record contain a separation physical examination form. The record describes the discharge as being based on Paragraph 15, Special Order Number 237, Adjutant General's Office, Air National Guard, Tennessee, which order states "P.A.C., Paragraph 7 b (10), Air National Guard Regulations 39-10 DTD, 5 August 1955, A/2C GEORGE M. The record reveals no active duty and no nervous or mental disorders. The record of Emergency Data reveals a wife, [redacted] and parents GEORGE MALLORY GIFFE, SR., and HELEN LOUISE GIFFE, all residing at [redacted]
[redacted]

b6
b7C

GIFFE's description at the time of his discharge listed him as a white male, 5'10" tall, 200 pounds, brown hair and eyes.

[redacted] Cincinnati Insurance Company, Central Parkway, Cincinnati, Ohio, advised that his company had issued policy number HO-2-5-20-30-35 on October 1, 1960, to GEORGE GIFFE, Apartment 9-C, 5025 Hillsboro Road, Nashville, Tennessee. This policy was cancelled February 21, 1970.

b6

[redacted] stated that if any additional information concerning the issuance of this insurance policy were desired, it could be obtained from Kneeland, Walters and Fox and Company, Nashville, Tennessee who issued this insurance policy.

[redacted] was interviewed at his residence, [redacted] advised that he is a business consultant working mainly in the Chicago area. He advised that he attended West End High School in Nashville, Tennessee, along with GEORGE GIFFE and [redacted] GIFFE's first wife.

[redacted] described GIFFE as a bright energetic student that never quite "made it" academically who was subsequently engaged in promotional activities which were shaky in their structure.

[redacted] advised that he had a chance meeting with GIFFE at a shopping center in Nashville near Christmas time, 1970. During their conversation at this time, GIFFE told him that he had a deal going involving franchise stock for AL HIRT, the details of which [redacted] does not recall.

[redacted] stated that he was in Nashville from August 22, 1971, to August 26, 1971, and had another chance meeting with GIFFE at an optometrist's at Baptist Hospital on Church Street at about 19th, on Tuesday, August 24, 1971. GIFFE told him that he was now in a sand and gravel mining venture at Marion, Georgia, wherein his company would use portable hydraulic mining equipment. GIFFE related that he had raised two million dollars to finance the corporation for the mining venture. [redacted] stated he does not recall the name of the company, however, GIFFE did mention it to him. GIFFE told [redacted] that the attorneys for the corporation had a problem about the corporation not being able to do business in Georgia and that the corporation was possibly a Tennessee Corporation. [redacted] advised GIFFE that they should form a corporation in Delaware. [redacted] stated that he was skeptical of GIFFE's story as any competent corporate attorney should be able to handle any problem of this nature. GIFFE also told [redacted] that the land involved in the mining operation had disputed ownership. He also advised that the financing for the corporation had been secured by pledging stock of another company, however, [] did not determine from GIFFE what company stocks were pledged. GIFFE told him that he was in the venture with [] (phonetic). [] described [] as being a playboy and a poor manager and as having come from a wealthy and socially prominent family in Nashville. [] supposedly holds controlling interest in a firm located on Woodcrest in Nashville, the name of which is similar to American Marine and Machine Dredge Company (AMMD). [] described [] as being employed at AMMD and as having been involved in the killing of his mother's second husband with a Japanese Samurai sword.

b6

GIFFE also told [] that he had an option to buy some land in Columbia. [] stated that he had no previous knowledge that GIFFE was involved in real estate.

GIFFE wanted [] to come in with him on the mining operation as a consultant and promised fabulous fees and stock deals. [] stated he was skeptical and gave GIFFE his card and his parent's phone number in Nashville, which is []. [] stated that GIFFE did call him the next day begging him to come in on the mining venture. GIFFE told him that he was going to Atlanta the following Friday and Saturday and that he always stayed at the Marriott Hotel when he stayed there. [] agreed to call him, however, when he did so, he ascertained that GIFFE was not registered there. [] advised that he had no subsequent contact with GIFFE.

[] advised that AMMD enjoyed great success during its first two years of operation but is presently in financial difficulty and is actually being controlled by the Third National Bank in Nashville. [] advised that [] is completely familiar with that company.

[] advised that when he learned of the hijacking, he attempted to determine if the hijacker was the GIFFE he knew. He stated that the newspaper article appeared to have misinformation so he telephonically tried to contact GIFFE through the Nashville operator. The operator told him that GIFFE's phone was unlisted and that she would not give out the number or the address. Inasmuch as GIFFE had told him that he lived in Batavia Gardens, he asked the operator if GIFFE's address was in Batavia

Gardens and she replied that it was. Inasmuch as this information did not correspond to the information in the newspaper, he concluded that GIFFE had been maintaining two residences.

[] stated that GIFFE had told him that his first wife, [] had remarried, however, [] does not know her new name or address. He stated there is still a question in his mind if [] is the girl killed during the hijacking. "

b6
b7C

[] stated that it was possible that GIFFE was in financial trouble and had attempted the hijacking for this reason. He stated that GIFFE was highly energetic and appeared to be working at a high pitch when he was in contact with him. However, [] had no indication that GIFFE was unstable at that time.

[] stated that in his opinion, GIFFE was looking for a front man with good credentials such as himself to put over his promotion of the mining venture.

[redacted] advised that he is a land developer and in about May of 1971 was interested in selling mineral rights on a tract of 6800 acres of land that he owned near Canton, Georgia. He had made some inquiry and found very valuable sand and gravel deposits on this land and found that there was a large market for these minerals. He had contacted [redacted] of Cade Incorporated, Nashville, Tennessee. In May, 1971, [redacted] contacted him and said that he had parties that might be interested in financing the mining operations. Shortly thereafter GEORGE GIFFE and his attorney, [redacted] of Nashville, Tennessee, came to his home in Cleveland to discuss this matter with him. They were accompanied by [redacted] Negro male, former basketball coach at Tennessee A & I College in Nashville. GIFFE was also accompanied by his wife, SUSAN. They remained overnight in Cleveland at the Scottish Inns and his proposition to lease the land was explained to them.

[redacted] recalled that on this occasion GIFFE had a pistol which GIFFE said was .9 PPK pistol and discharged this weapon several times on the property they were examining. On May 20, 1971, GIFFE, [redacted] and GEORGE F. DUGGER, SR., a lawyer from Elizabethton, Tennessee, met at Attorney [redacted] office in Nashville and drew up a contract whereby Cade, Incorporated, leased the property owned by [redacted]. At that time [redacted] was to receive $15,000 earnest money but only received $3,000 with a provision in the lease that mining operations would start within ninety days. GIFFE was to arrange the financing for the mining operations. [redacted] also attempted to get one [redacted] of Nashville to invest in the deal but [redacted] after meeting with them turned down the offer.

Soon thereafter all of them met again at the Marriott Motel in Atlanta at GIFFE'S invitation. GIFFE was supposed to have a geologist there to make further sample tests of minerals taken from the property by [] A few weeks later they all again met at the Marriott Motel, Atlanta. This was in July and was the last time he actually saw GIFFE. After ninety days he had sent word to GIFFE that the contract was void as no mining operations had been started on the land. b6 b7C [] advised that on his first contact with GIFFE he noted nothing unusual about GIFFE except that he was loud mouthed and wanted to run the show. But on subsequent contacts, he noticed a complete change in GIFFE. He carried the pistol with him at all times, even in the belt of his shorts when undressed and began to have violent fits of rage during which time he would brandish the pistol wildly. Several times in the middle of conversations, GIFFE would stop and state he was receiving a call from his friend who was flying an airplane. He said that he had to go to the airport to meet this friend who was coming in. GIFFE actually left the meetings to go to the airport. He spoke several times of this friend but never mentioned a name. GIFFE began wearing his hair in a mod style and dressed constantly in "bush coat" with an American Flag sewn on the shoulder. He described GIFFE as being "super patriotic". GIFFE spoke vaguely of having been in intelligence work.

He noted that during this period GIFFE'S behavior deteriorated and his rages became more frequent especially when he mentioned his mother-in-law. On one occasion while at the Marriott Motel, [] told him that GIFFE and his wife had a violent fight in which her arm was injured and she had scraped the skin from his face. [] also told him that GIFFE was insanely jealous of his wife, SUSAN, and took her everywhere he went. [] seemed to be very close to GIFFE and apparently knew GIFFE better than anyone in the group.

[] advised that after July, 1971, he had no further contact with GIFFE and knew nothing further of him until he had read in the papers that GIFFE had hijacked an airplane and killed his wife and himself.

[] advised that [] is unknown to him.

GEORGE DUGGER, an attorney with offices located Siler - Hunter Building, Elizabethton, Tennessee, telephone 543-2551, was contacted at the Ramada Inn, Kingston Pike, Knoxville, Tennessee, and furnished the following information:

About six or seven months ago, [redacted] visited him in Elizabethton, Tennessee, and he prepared a charter in blank for Cade, Inc., Nashville, Tennessee, which company was to operate the Consolidated Gold and Pyrite Corporation (CGPC), which company owned mineral rights to approximately 6200 acres of land located 40 miles north of Atlanta. The name of the company and other data on the charter was to be filled in by [redacted] Nashville, Tennessee, who was the attorney for Cade, Inc. [redacted] was then to register the company in Nashville, Tennessee.

b7C

He stated at that time GEORGE GIFFE was Chairman of the Board and [redacted] was the President and [redacted] was the General Counsel for Cade, Inc., Nashville, Tennessee. He stated that [redacted] of Cleveland, Tennessee, owned 90% of CGPC.

He later went to Nashville, Tennessee, and discussed with [redacted] the possibility of exchanging CGPC stock for Cade, Inc. stock instead of putting out cash as issuing stock would be cheaper and more favorable. He told [redacted] he did not know if this was legal or not and that he, [redacted] should contact [redacted] a tax lawyer, in Washington, D. C. He indicated that later on [redacted] indicated this procedure was not legal.

On another business trip to Nashville, Tennessee, he visited [redacted] GIFFE and [redacted] Negro coach at Tennessee A & I College, were present and GIFFE invited him over to his apartment. He went to GIFFE's apartment and present were [redacted] and his wife, [redacted] GIFFE, his wife and small child and [redacted] from Fisk University and his wife. In approximately June, 1971, he again visited Nashville, Tennessee, to attend a Bar Association meeting and had breakfast with GIFFE and his wife.

In September, 1971, GIFFE and [] visited him in Elizabethton, Tennessee, and they traveled by automobile to [] farm located near Rogersville, Tennessee, where [] and his wife were visiting. At this time [] indicated that the exchanging of CGPC stock for Cade, Inc. stock was not legal.

At the farm GIFFE remarked that he was going to "break [] neck" or words to that effect because [] had written letters to GIFFE canceling the lease regarding the CGPC mineral rights in Georgia. He indicated that apparently GIFFE was to start operations in Georgia within 90 days and GIFFE had failed to do so and this was the reason [] canceled the lease. He said the group then returned to Elizabethton, Tennessee, around 5:00 PM and dropped him off.

He stated that GIFFE, age 35, was a teacher or professor at Peabody College in Nashville, Tennessee and met his wife, age 25, who was a student there. Later on GIFFE went into the real estate business and was a promoter for the Al HIRT Enterprizes. He stated GIFFE left the impression that GIFFE was at one time connected with the intelligence service, possibly in the Korean War as GIFFE was always pretending that he could make a check on anyone.

He stated he had heard that GIFFE's wife left him 9 days prior to the hijacking of the airplane in Nashville, Tennessee, and that he had heard GIFFE always carried a gun; however he had never observed one on GIFFE's person.

He stated that the only time he ever observed GIFFE act out of the ordinary or lose his temper was at the farm near Rogersville, Tennessee, in September, 1971, when GIFFE indicated that he was going to break [] neck.

[redacted] is presently in Ocean City, Maryland to begin a dredging operation in Ocean City Bay as the Captain of a dredge boat, and is associated in this operation with East Coast Dredging Company.

[redacted] first met GEORGE GIFFE approximately 4-5 months ago through [redacted] at a party one evening at the Bavarian Apartments, Nashville, Tennessee. [redacted] is in the trucking business in Nashville, and [redacted] has known him for a number of years. GIFFE had the mineral rights to sand deposits in North Atlanta, Georgia, and GIFFE wanted [redacted] and [redacted] to join him in forming a company in this venture. [redacted] was supposed to perform the dredging operation, and get the sand to the processing plant, and [redacted] was supposed to process and truck the sand to it's destination. GIFFE was attempting to raise a million, two hundred thousand dollars for the operation, and it was his intention to remain in Nashville, and seek other business ventures in which to invest the million dollars. [redacted] stated that the operation could have been handled the first year with a sum of $200,000., but GIFFE wanted to start out with a General Motors type operation. [redacted] stated that he was very skeptical about the way the operation was to be run, but also knew that it could be very profitable if managed intelligently. GIFFE reportedly obtained the contract for the mineral rights through a Nashville Bar, and could have borrowed the money for the operation using the contract as collateral. Instead, GIFFE borrowed money from friends of his, and issued stock in the company by writing same on a piece of paper. [redacted] stated that he was in GIFFE's company approximately nine times over a four month period of time in connection with the business venture, but added that he did not know a great deal concerning his background. He knew that he had been in the Real Estate Business, and went out of business. GIFFE had previously been married and had one child. GIFFE always carried a pistol, and always traveled by chartered airplane rather than commercial as he was afraid of being caught with the gun. [redacted] knew of no reason why GIFFE carried a gun, and this made him even more skeptical of him.

[] stated that he and [] finally decided to break off relations with GIFFE as they were afraid of being tied up in a business deal with GIFFE. GIFFE was a big promoter, a smooth talker, but could not hold on to money. The money GIFFE borrowed from his friends to finance this business venture, was spent in an extravagant fashion. GIFFE purchased a new Cadillac, but it was later learned that he got the Cadillac without putting up a penny. [] a Negro businessman from Nashville, Tennessee was also in on the business deal with GIFFE, and [] reportedly plans to go ahead with the operation in the near future.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date October 18, 1971

[redacted] (home telephone number [redacted]) was interviewed at his home. He advised that he has been employed by the Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) since 1957 and is currently assigned to the Control Tower at Jacksonville International Airport, Jacksonville, Florida. He stated his job is described as an Air Traffic Control Specialist and he was on duty in the Control Tower at Jacksonville International Airport on the twelve midnight to eight o'clock A.M. shift on Monday, October 4, 1971.

b6
b7E

[redacted] stated that he was on duty alone in the Control Tower and that at 0757 Greenwich he was advised by the Air Traffic Control Center in Hilliard, Florida, that they had received information from the Atlanta Traffic Control Center that a plane had been hijacked. This plane was overflying Atlanta and was estimated to arrive at Jacksonville at 0900 Greenwich.

[redacted] stated that the Atlanta Traffic Control Center had advised that [redacted]

[redacted] advised that he informed Watch Supervisor [redacted] of the hijacking.

[redacted] was then furnished a transcript of a re-recording prepared by the Jacksonville Tower pertaining to the hijacking of aircraft N9058N on October 4, 1971. This re-recording covers the recorded conversation between Jacksonville Tower and the pilot of N9058N. The period of time covered in the re-recording is from 0847 Greenwich to 0933 Greenwich on October 4, 1971. [redacted] advised after reading the transcript that to the best of his recollection the statements after the designation "unknown" on page 1 and page 2 and after the designation "Tower" on pages 5, 6, 7 and 8 were his.

He noted that after review of the above-described transcript that it is substantially correct to the best of his recollection but there are some places in the transcript which are not in complete accord with his recollection of the conversation. [redacted] noted that on pages 1 and 2, the statements after "unknown" were made by him in conversation with [redacted]. [redacted] stated that in this conversation he was attempting to determine if a plane which appeared on his radar scope was the hijacked plane and if another plane which also appeared on the radar scope may have been scrambled to monitor the hijacked plane.

[] advised that he was monitoring the conversation between N9058N and radar and that as shown on page 5 of the transcript he assumed direct communication with N9058N immediately before N9058N landed. [] stated that after N9058N had landed he directed it to taxi to the area of the AirKaman facility where N9058N could refuel and unload. He advised the plane was facing north after it stopped at AirKaman.

b6

[] stated that before he assumed direct communication with N9058N [] of the FBI arrived in the Tower while N9058N was still 18 vector miles from the end of the runway.

[] stated that while he was in the tower and with the aid of binoculars he saw a person which turned out to be the co-pilot of N9058N depart the plane. He also stated that after the co-pilot departed he saw a vehicle drive near the plane. The driver of this vehicle was determined later to be [] who was heading towards the Control Tower. [] also stated that later he saw another person lying on the ground near the plane and this individual did not appear to be moving. Also during his observation of the plane [] stated that an FBI vehicle was parked in a position east southeast of N9058N. [] stated that sometime after seeing the person lying on the ground, he saw a couple puffs of smoke come from around the plane. [] stated that sometime after [] had taken the microphone to assume direct conversation with N9058N, [] arrived in the Control Tower and [] started talking with the Federal Aviation Administration Headquarters in Washington, D.C., on the telephone.

[] advised that on page 12 of the transcript opposite the designation 9:24.55 there is the following statement, "...during which the Tower Operator at one time states that when he flew for an airline he used to carry a gun with him." [] advised that this is not a complete transcription of what he said and that he was referring to a

On the morning of October 18, 1971, I received information advising that a newspaper article appearing in "The Washington Post" at Washington, D. C., stated, "Shortly after the shooting, sources say, someone in the Control Tower cracked; 'You can't win 'em all'."

The article continued, "The 'You can't win 'em all' remark according to sources, who asked not to be named, is part of background conversation audible on the FAA's tape recording although not included in the transcript obtained by the Post."

On this date SA [] and I proceeded to the Control Tower, Federal Aviation Administration (FAA), Jacksonville International Airport, where we met with [] Assistant Chief, Traffic Control Center, and I asked [] if he had any knowledge as to the above statement. [] stated that he, as one of the custodians of the original FAA tape, never heard the above alleged statement made at any time during his numerous re-playing of this tape.

b6

He further stated that during the time that he was in the Control Tower on the morning of October 4, 1971, he never heard such a statement made by any of the personnel who were present.

At this time [] played back the original rerecording of the taped conversations in the Control Tower in the presence of myself, [] and SA []. A thorough review of the contents of this playback did not reveal any such statement as "You can't win 'em all."

[] advised that on October 13, 1971 [] Attorney for Big Brother's Aircraft, Nashville, Tennessee, accompanied by a [] co-pilot of the ill-fated aircraft, and a [] who is the chief pilot for Big Brother's Aircraft, were in the office of [] at which time [] was also present. for [] at which time [] made a rerecording for his use using an "open microphone" on his tape machine. At the conclusion of [] recording he commented that it was of poor quality and asked who had the squeaking chair, apparently referencing [] chair in the office at that time. He further pointed out that during [] recording of the tape [] received several telephone calls from the outside and it was very possible that any statements made by [] or anyone else in the room at the time of the recording could have been recorded by []

b7C

A review of the Federal Aviation Administration Visitors Log at the Control Tower for the day of October 13, 1971, reflected that [] and a miscellaneous crew from the National Broadcasting Company (NBC), [] "Nashville Tennessean," and [] of the Florida Publishing Company had been logged in. [] said that none of these individuals were present inside [] office while [] was making his recording although it was possible they could have heard brief excerpts through the closed doors.

[redacted] residence [redacted]
[redacted] telephone number [redacted] Team
Supervisor, Federal Aviation Administration, Hilliard, Florida, was interviewed at his place of employment.

[redacted] informed that he became aware of the hi-jacking approximately one hour before the plane landed in Jacksonville. He stated the Watch Supervisor from Atlanta Federal Aviation Administration called him by telephone and stated there was a private plane from Nashville that had been hi-jacked by two men who forced a woman on a plane in Nashville.
He continued that the pilot was forced to take off without a departure clearance from Nashville Tower, but thereafter the pilot talked to the Nashville Tower and obtained clearance to fly to Jacksonville as his destination. [redacted] stated that he discussed the matter with Atlanta and he assumed that the hi-jacker would eventually want to go to Havana. [redacted] added that he alerted the Miami Center that the plane had been hi-jacked from Nashville and might possibly continue on to Havana from Jacksonville.

[redacted] stated that the pilot flew by Atlanta past Macon, Georgia, and approximately 40 miles south of Macon, jurisdiction of the Jacksonville Federal Aviation Administration Center starts. Atlanta pointed the plane out on radar to Hilliard and Hilliard Federal Aviation Administration assumed control. He pointed out that [redacted] was working the radio position when control was taken.

[redacted] stated that he walked down from his position and observed the hand down of the radar control from Atlanta to Hilliard. Approximately five minutes after Hilliard assumed control, the pilot or co-pilot radioed that he had a request. The pilot or communicator stated that upon landing in Jacksonville, he would like fuel, charts and approach plates for Freeport, Bahamas, airport. He also requested flotation gear for eight people, as [redacted] interpreted it, and the pilot stated, "We want no one near the airplane," and believes the pilot first said 200 yards and in later discussion changed it to 100 yards. The pilot stated that this was very important and the only exception was the gas attendant.

Subsequently the pilot stated he had another request and stated that either he or they wanted two bottles of Chevis Regal Scotch. He believes that the pilot again repeated that it was very important that no one approached the plane except the gas attendant. [redacted] stated that he instructed [redacted] to tell the pilot that everything would be ready.

b6
b7C

[redacted] stated that during this time [redacted] the night supervisor, had called Jacksonville Air Traffic Control Center, Jacksonville Airport, and either [redacted] gave [redacted] the supervisor at Jacksonville, the list of the pilot's requests.

[redacted] stated that when the plane was approximately 40 miles from the Jacksonville Airport, the Jacksonville Air Traffic Control Center took over the aircraft.

[redacted] was of the opinion that the voice on the radio from the plane was the same at all times and for some unknown reason he feels the voice was that of the co-pilot. He stated the voice was very calm but had a note of seriousness when he stated that no one should come near the plane.

b7E

[redacted] additionally advised that just after Hilliard took over control of the aircraft he talked to an unknown official of the Federal Aviation Administration in Washington, who in turn had an FBI Agent in Washington on the phone. This Agent suggested to [redacted] that if the weather became a factor in landing the plane at Jacksonville, that the plane would best be routed to another large airport where FBI Agents would be available.

[redacted] stated that he reported for work approximately 11:45 P.M., October 3, 1971, at the Air Traffic Control Center, Hilliard, Florida. During the early morning of October 4, 1971, the Atlanta Air Control Center handed control of a private aircraft to [redacted] and Atlanta advised that this plane had been hi-jacked. The identity of the Atlanta Air Control employee was unknown to [redacted]

b7C
b7E

[redacted] The communicator asked about flotation gear and wanted this gear provided for the plane upon landing at Jacksonville. Atlanta had previously advised that the plane wanted to land at Jacksonville.

[redacted] stated that the communicator emphasized more than once that he did not want any interference and wanted no one closer to the plane than 300 yards, other than the person who would fuel the plane. The communicator also wanted an auxiliary power unit to start his plane again. The communicator also requested that a bottle of Chevis 12 Scotch whiskey be furnished. [redacted] stated that the communicator did not mention the police or the FBI, but did state that he wanted no interference and this was a dangerous situation. [redacted] stated that he told the pilot or communicator that he could expect all these things to be provided to him. He added that the standard procedure is to acknowledge request from a hi-jacked plane and advise the plane that his request would be relayed to the appropriate authorities. He stated that in this case his crew chief, [redacted] instructed him to tell the pilot that all his requests would be complied with. He stated that [redacted] had been on the telephone talking to the FBI in Washington and that he, [redacted] assumed that the FBI had given [redacted] the above instructions. He later discussed this with [redacted] at which time he learned that [redacted] apparently took it upon himself to give the instructions that everything would be provided to the pilot that he requested.

[] stated that the pilot never did state the number of people on the plane, but Atlanta Control had previously told him the number on the plane. [] stated that he assumed the flotation equipment would be for eight people inasmuch as this plane is capable of carrying eight people, including the pilot and co-pilot. He stated that he relayed this information to [] who in turn relayed it by telephone to the Watch Supervisor, Approach Control Facility, Jacksonville International Airport.

He also stated the pilot had requested the shortest route over water to the Bahamas, as well as the mileage, and that he preferred most of the flight over land, if possible, using the water as little as possible. This route was provided to him. The pilot also requested weather forecast for a trip to the Bahamas, but this was never given to him inasmuch as he was transferred to the Jacksonville controller.

[] believes that there were possibly two different voices from the airplane, possibly the pilot and the co-pilot. He also believed that he possibly heard the hijacker's voice in the background, but he is not sure he heard any woman's voice. He stated the pilot seemed calm in his radio transmissions but his voice did indicate the gravity of the situation at the time. He was of the opinion that the pilot's voice remained practically the same during his transmission.

[] estimated that he had voice contact with the plane approximately 25 or 30 minutes and feels that he, himself, was only an intermediary between the pilot and the agency that would comply with the pilot's request.

[redacted] Chief of Maintenance, Airkaman, Jacksonville International Airport, advised that under normal conditions an aircraft such as Hawk Commander N9058N could restart its engines by means of the internal battery power aboard the aircraft. He further stated that it is the normal practice of pilots to utilize an auxiliary power unit (APU) when starting their aircraft in order to preserve battery power.

He said that this type of aircraft frequently lands at airfields where auxiliary power equipment is not available and therefore the restart capability is essential.

The aircraft made a one hundred eighty degree turn and then stopped with the engines running. He said that he continued to prepare his aircraft when he heard at least two muffled shots from the direction of the hijacked aircraft. He then left his aircraft and ran into the terminal building. He said that he remained in the building for a short period of time, approximately ten minutes, and then returned to his aircraft. He said that when he got back to his aircraft he again heard a number of shots from the vicinity of the parked hijacked aircraft and he went back into the terminal building.

[redacted] stated that when he was first interviewed by FBI Agents, he estimated that the time interval between the first shots which he heard and the second group was twenty-five minutes, but upon further consideration, he believes that the time was much less and he was originally referring to the time period from when the plane first arrived until the entire incident was over.

CAA-HIJACKING; KIDNAPING

Specimens received personally delivered by SA [REDACTED] on 10/3/71

SPECIMENS FROM GEORGE M. GIFFE, JR.

- Q1 Bullet and metal fragment from skull
- Q2 Metal fragment from brain
- Q3 Tissue from head

SPECIMENS FROM SUSAN GIFFE

- Q4 Bullet from near left armpit
- Q5 Bullet from brain
- Q6 Bullet fragment from chest
- Q7 Bullet fragment from below left breast

- Q8-Q14 Seven cartridge cases from floor of aircraft
- Q15 Bullet from floor under rudder pedal
- Q16 Bullet resting on pilot's right thigh
- Q17 Bullet fragment from floor by left side seat
- Q18 Metal fragment from rear seat
- Q19 Clip from floor containing seven cartridges

- K1 .380 Auto (9mm Kurz) Walther automatic pistol,
Model PPK/S, Serial Number 151170S, with clip
- K2 9mm Browning automatic pistol, HP Model,
Serial Number 53784, with clip

Also Submitted: Fourteen cartridges from clip of K2

Result of examination:

The bullet from Q1, and Q4, Q5 and Q16 bullets, and the Q8 through Q14 cartridge cases were all identified as having been fired by the K1 pistol.

Human blood, too limited in amount for conclusive grouping, was identified on K1.

The small metal fragment in Q1 and the Q2 metal fragment do not bear sufficient microscopic characteristics to determine whether or not they are bullet fragments. However, they are similar in composition to each other and to the lead core of the bullet in Q1.

Flakes of unburned gunpowder were found on the Q3 tissue. These flakes did not form a definite pattern which precludes the possibility of making an accurate muzzle-to-head distance determination.

Specimens Q6, Q7 and Q17 are fragments from the jacket portion of jacketed bullets which are too mutilated to determine the caliber of bullets from which they originated. Further, they do not bear sufficient individual microscopic characteristics for identification purposes.

Specimen Q15 is a .38 caliber jacketed bullet which has been fired from a barrel rifled with six lands and grooves, right twist, such as the barrel of the K1 pistol. Due to extensive mutilation, the Q15 bullet does not bear sufficient individual microscopic marks for identification purposes. Specimen Q15 could not have been fired from K2.

The Q18 metal fragment does not bear sufficient microscopic characteristics to determine whether or not it is a bullet fragment. However, Q18 is similar in composition to the lead cores of the Q5 and Q15 bullets.

The Q19 clip and cartridges are like those used in weapons such as K1.

Although the K2 pistol has been fired since last cleaned, it is not possible to determine the length of time since it was last fired.

SUSPECT #2.

This is the investigation of a double murder and suicide.

SYNOPSIS

4 October, 1971

1:20 am - In Nashville, Tennessee, George Mallory Giffe Jr., his wife, Susan and [] arrived at Big Brothers Aircraft Incorporated at Metro Airport on Lynnwood Drive, to board a plane which George Giffe had chartered earlier. When they arrived at the airport, Susan was screaming and struggling trying to get out of the car. [] held her in the car while George went to look for the pilots. George located Brent Quinton Downs, the pilot and [] the co-pilot. George advised them that they were ready to go. The pilots heard and saw Susan and they inquired as to what was wrong. George flashed a badge of some sort and stated he was with the CIA and he was taking his wife to Atlanta, to a mental hospital. (The plane had been chartered for a flight for two passengers to Atlanta, Georgia and one passenger returning.) The co-pilot told George Giffe that they could not take Susan aboard in that condition. George Giffe then stated that he was a doctor and he would give her a sedative when they got aboard. The co-pilot turned to the pilot and stated "We better call the police." Giffe, hearing this, pulled a pistol and made the two pilots get aboard the plane. Then Giffe and [] forcibly put Mrs. Giffe aboard.

[] a line boy at the airport saw what was happening and called the police.

Giffe forced the pilots to taxi out onto the runway without a clearance. While waiting for a clearance to take off, a uniform patrol car drove along side the plane with it's blue lights on. When Giffe saw the police car, he forced the pilots to take off without a clearance.

Once in the air, Mrs. Giffe settled down. Giffe changed his mind about going to Atlanta and ordered them to fly to Jacksonville, with the intention of refueling and continuing on to Freeport, Bahamas. 178

While the plane was in the air, the local F.B.I. was notified and they were waiting at the airport when the plane landed. The plane landed and taxied to the runway area near the Airkarman Hangers, where the pilot requested fuel and sea equipment. Upon this request, the F.B.I., already on the scene with an agent in the airport control tower, refused fuel and sea equipment. After being refused the request, co-pilot [redacted] left the aircraft and approached an F.B.I. car, which had moved in near the rear of the plane. [redacted] was taken into custody until he convinced the agent that he was the co-pilot, then advised the agent of what the conditions were on the plane.

Moments after [redacted] was in the safety of the F.B.I., the aircraft was notified that the co-pilot would not return to the plane and there still would not be any fuel. Moments after this notification there were shots heard inside the aircraft and the F.B.I. moved in and blocked the aircraft with a car. As one agent approached the plane, two shots were fired through the windshield of the plane at the agent. The agents then shot the right engine, which was still running, to stop it and shot both tires.

Sometime during all this, [redacted] departed from the plane and was apprehended near the rear of the plane. The agents recovered the automatic pistol from [redacted]

The F.B.I. then approached the plane and upon entry, they discovered the pilot slumped over, shot to death. Mrs. Susan Giffe was lying in the back seat, shot to death and George Giffe lying in the back seat shot. George Giffe was unconscious, but still alive. He was removed to Duval Medical Center via a Rescue Unit where he was dead on arrival at 6:30 a.m.

Upon arrival at the scene, the writer observed a twin engine Hawk Commander #N9058N, color- white and yellow gold, with two flat tires, parked on a runway to the southwest of Airkarman Hangers. The plane was headed north.

The writer was advised by F.B.I. Agent [] of the incident and that the pilot and a white female was inside the aircraft, dead, one of the suspects was dead on arrival at a local hospital, the co-pilot was with other agents at another location of the airport and a number two suspect was in F.B.I. custody, some place away from the scene.

Upon Captain [] arrival at the aircraft, it was declared that the F.B.I. had full jurisdiction. Upon the request of the F.B.I. Homicide Investigators, [] and the writer assisted the F.B.I., with the death investigations.

At this request, the writer inquired as to photographs and was advised that the Jacksonville Uniform Evidence Technician had already photographed the scene, both inside and out of the plane.

Upon the investigator's entry into the plane, there was a white female body fully clothed, lying on the back seat. The body was cool. No pulse could be felt. There was blood about the body and clothes. The body of a white male, fully clothed, was lying in the pilot and co-pilot's seats. The body was cool. No pulse could be felt. The bodies were removed from the plane and transported to the Duval Medical Center via Key McCabe ambulance where they both were pronounced dead on arrival at 8:30 am.

Investigator [] proceeded to the morgue where he met F.B.I. agent [] and processed the three bodies. F.B.I. agents, [] Homicide Investigator and the writer processed the airplane and recovered personal property, and evidence. The evidence and personal property was tagged and placed in the trunk of Agent [] car.

Lieutenant [] S. Sergeant [] and Spec 5, [] of E.O.D. 544 Ordnance Det., N.A.S., Jacksonville, were summoned to the scene to investigate a reported "bomb" in a metal box, which had been removed to a safe distance from the plane before the arrival of the writer. Investigation revealed that the metal box was actually a box of personal papers of George Giffe's.

After processing of the aircraft was completed, the aircraft was held by the F.B.I. for further processing at a later time.

1:00 pm - The writer and investigator [] interviewed [] at the F.B.I. Office. After being advised of his rights, [] gave a short, oral statement. He alleges that he was requested by Giffe to drive Giffe and his wife to the airport in Nashville and while en route Giffe gave him a pistol to keep and three letters to mail. He placed the letters over the sun visor of the car and the pistol in his pocket. Upon arrival at the airport, Mrs. Giffe began screaming and struggling, refusing to go with Giffe. Giffe then pulled a pistol on him and made them get aboard. They then flew to Jacksonville where, after being refused fuel, he was let off the plane to try to convince the F.B.I. to let them have fuel. After he left the plane and was arrested by the F.B.I., he heard shots on the plane. He claims when he left the plane the pilot and Mr. and Mrs. Giffe were all alive. The interview was concluded in order for [] to make a 1:30 pm arraignment before the U. S. Magistrate. After the appearance for the arraignment, [] refused to talk to the writer until he talked to his lawyer.

August of 1971?

Yes, sir.

And what does your job consist of?

Directing airplanes, ranging the airplanes, keeping them on flight.

And what time do you start?

From 12:00 midnight to 8:00 the next morning.

I believe you know something of an incident that occurred here at Big Brothers which is located at Ferry Field on October 4, 1971, is that correct?

b6
b7c

Yes, sir, it is.

Will you tell us what you know about it please?

When I first went in the limousine that were getting out of the building that we had a charter and they were due at 1:00 a.m. 8-1-71. It was 12:00 o'clock then so I immediately clocked in, it was around 12 o'clock I would say. I clocked in and pulled the airplane out and at this time the --as I was going to pull the plane out the pilots were arriving. Brent Brown was here I know. I pulled the plane out, pulled it around to the front and the pilots told me to fuel the inboards and put 25 gallons in each outboard. I did this and we stood--after I did this we stood around and talked for awhile. At 1:00 supposedly when the charter was due in or I mean was supposed to be here they were not here and 4 minutes after one Giffe called and said they would be 10 minutes late. He called again at around 20 minutes after one and said he would be 10 more minutes late. And at a quarter of 2 they arrived and I had--at 1:30 I had gone around to the back of the building and I had saw the headlights on the car coming up the road so I assumed it was there and ran around to the front to operate the auxiliary power unit which is needed to start the plane. And as I was walking up on the pilots the gentleman got out of the car and walked up to the pilots and myself. He identified himself as a doctor and that the girl was mentally ill, was on drugs of some type or something and needed to be got to Atlanta and to pay no attention to what she said. The girl was screaming inside and beating on the glass inside the car and the gentleman right at her side was holding her. We -- the gentleman that presented himself as a doctor started to go back to the car and stopped and come back and showed his credentials again. At this time [redacted] Brent and myself looked at each other in a funny way and I believe that [redacted] was the car that requested or asked Brent to have this checked out by the police. So we left. Before they left. At this time the gentleman was back at the car. He opened the car door and the girl, in a way, she fought her way out and grabbed hold of her arm and at the same time the rider on the other side was getting out on their side. And at the same time they both pulled guns. And noticed the gun toward the plane for the pilots to get it. At this time I had started the auxiliary power unit and started it up while they were getting in the plane. When around to the front of the plane they started the right engine and started the left engine and gave me the O.K. to unhook the power cord and I proceeded around and unhooked the power cord and I drove it around to the back of the building, went into the back of the building and parked there and called the gentleman back there and called the gentleman back there.

Yes, that's what you pulled the plane out of the hangar, you saw you pulled it out in front of the building that would be facing the driveway?

Yes in general, it would be facing sideways to this building here.

And then this car came around did it seem to come on around to the side of the building or did it park to the rear of the building, where did it park when it first came up?

It pulled out to the very end the corner end of the building. b6
The plane was pulled to the end there. b7C

To the front?

Yes, sir, to the front and the car pulled to the corner of the building.

Could you see the car sitting next to the end of the building?

Yes, sir.

And you could see a lady and man passenger in it when he pulled up?

Not when he pulled up. As I say when I approached I was at the side of the building. And when I approached the pilot the gentleman was getting out of the car and coming toward the pilot then.

The pilots were standing outside of the building.

Yes, sir.

How far the plane?

Yes, sir.

And then you went out of the building where the pilot and co-pilot was?

Yes, sir.

And at this time was this gentleman talking with them?

Well I was at the corner of the building I wasn't inside the building. I was back down to the corner of the building and I came up to where the pilots were at the same time the man was coming up to the pilots.

The first time the gentleman came up were you present and he showed his credentials?

then and then just as he started to close his mouth back up.

You were a walking dead pilot then?

A few feet, yes, sir.

b6
b7C

and he looks any different in those other than he was ready to at that point, later in my, I was standing a few feet from the pilots and just approaching them. He said, he asked me the difference between them the plane or if this was the plane and if he would he was a doctor to a patient.

And you say at this time he goes back to the car?

Yes, he starts back to the car.

And does he come back up there?

Yes, sir.

Did he pull a gun or anything at this time?

No sir.

He goes back to the car then? and gets the girl out?

Yes, sir.

And another gentleman gets out?

Yes, sir.

And then you are standing near the pilots then?

Yes, sir.

O. K. he continued on to the pilots, walking on toward them?

No they both headed toward the plane. In other words, when the gentleman pulled the guns they motioned the pilots to go toward the plane--I broke away from the pilots and headed toward the back of the plane.

Did either of them say anything to you?

No he didn't, he never did.

Did he say anything to the pilots? or did you hear him?

Not that I could hear to the pilots, except that he motioned to the plane and he headed the plane.

The pilots requested him to go aboard when they saw he was under the gun?

Yes, sir.

So you say you went toward the rear of the plane?

b6
b7C

Yes, sir. That's where I went.

Did you ever make any statement after that as they were leaving?

Well the only thing I heard was the girl that she was talking to something with the girl and the girl told him to go to hell. And that is the last thing I heard.

This was as they were boarding the plane?

Yes, sir, the girl was in the door of the plane there.

Who boarded this plane first, do you recall.

The pilots boarded the plane first as far as I could see as I headed toward the power cart.

And the girl was between the two men as they boarded?

Yes, sir.

Do you know anything more about the incident?

No, sir, not to my knowledge.

You know nothing about the man calling in prior and you receiving this phone call that he was going to be late?

No, sir, only that the charter was schedule for 2:00 o'clock.

When you came in before you took the plane out of the hangar did you service this plane, or had it been serviced when you arrived?

As far as service we always wait to fuel the plane after it is gotten out of the hanger.

Is this all that you did to that plane?

Yes, sir.

While it was in the hanger you did nothing?

Nothing to it at all.

did not notice any lights, horns or anything running on the plane. Were you in the plane prior to flight?
The car was in the plane and I changed the driver license and took his luggage in the plane. The pilot, the porter and I found it about this. He already had the luggage on the plane and like I said the door was open and the luggage had been placed in the plane.

b6
b7c

That's all the items in the luggage?

Yes, sir.

Are you in a time was some luggage in board the plane?

Sure did.

You didn't as far as inspect it or notice it what was in it or--

No, sir.

Did you notice any small metal boxes around? Anything that would cause you to be suspicious?

No, sir, the only thing that causes me to be suspicious like this is to arrange a charter like this and be so greedy that afford as far as luggage they usually bring their luggage with them when they come.

There was nothing on the luggage that you suspected and inspected to say I didn't look at it that much.

You say you called the security guards?

Yes, sir.

Who in turn notified the tower or the city police or some official?

Yes, sir.

Do you know what time the flight plan was made? Approximately?

They were originally to take off at 1:00.

And the pilot you say you know was here when you arrived to work that day?

Well he was arriving at the same time I was.

When they came in did the car have time to go or stop at the rear of the building and get out and do anything or would it have pulled right onto the ramp when you first saw the headlights.

It didn't have time to stop, no.

In all prob ability it came on around.

Yes, sir, because I was from the other side of the hangar

When you lifted the van did he show any suspicion or any reason to do so?

I don't know anything about it for some reason. He didn't talk very much about it, yes, sir.

Was he claiming, was he claiming, did you detect any odor?

Nothing about that. I don't think he had that or that later that night he was in the area. He said he was.

His equipment, he seemed to have all this?

Yes, sir.

Anything else [redacted] that you would like to say?

No, sir.

Q. Now, you said you were working for the [redacted] at the time you were arrested, is that correct?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And you were working for the [redacted] at the time you were arrested, is that correct?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And you were working for the [redacted] at the time you were arrested, is that correct?

b6

Q. And how long have you been working for them?

A. About a year, sir.

Q. Now, you were working for the [redacted] at the time you were arrested, is that correct?

In this context, air.
It is correct, it was Monday, October 4.

Will you tell us what happened please sir?

From here? We were forced onto the plane. We had a scheduled charter set up with this party and we were forced onto the plane with a gun that I saw and we were supposed to have went to Atlanta, Georgia. However, we changed our destination to Jacksonville, Florida and we landed at Jacksonville and received more fuel, supposedly to have gone on to Freeport. That is down in the Bahamas I believe. After we once got onto the ground we were given taxi instructions and we followed taxi instructions to a remote area which would require 200 to 300 yard clearance from anything or anybody and we requested fuel, jet fuel and we also floatation gear which is your life rafts, life vests, and also we requested some maps of the Freeport area down there in the Bahamas and we sat on the ground for about 5 minutes, approximately 5 minutes with the engines running wanting to know where the fuel truck was. After awhile the party came over---the voice over---in the control tower I assume and identified themselves as the FBI and they said there would be no fuel for this aircraft and we pleaded with them and asked them several times for fuel. They were very much aware that we were in a hijacking situation and they advised us let the engines run until they ran out of fuel but the aircraft was not going to get any fuel.

So approximately 5 minutes after we were on the ground sitting there I asked the parties aboard if I could leave the airplane to try to persuade the FBI to let us have fuel and continue on. So the parties on board said yeah that was O.K. to go ahead and try. So I left the airplane, they made the other pilot, the captain, Brent Downs stay on the airplane, requested that he stay on the airplane and I got off and the two FBI let me behind the airplane put me in the car and approximately 5 minutes later a party, I never did know his name other than what the FBI told me, [redacted] I believe, came off the airplane to help persuade, I understand, to help persuade them into letting us have fuel so we could leave. And the FBI immediately put him on the ground and held him in custody there and soon after the FBI shot the tires on the aircraft and another party shot the right engine, shot into the right engine and very soon after, within a minute it was stopped and the left engine was already shut off so I could get off the aircraft. And then shortly afterwards the whole thing was over.

Big Brother Aircraft called my home on Sunday evening between 4 and 5:00 p.m. and my wife took the call and told them that I would call back soon. So I called back in approximately 5 minutes and I talked to them and they told me I had a charter to Atlanta and they told me that the party was here so I suggested that well let me talk to him. That we might have to take the bigger aircraft due to instrument weather.

So I talked to the party so he said, no problem. I told him, I said, the party I talked with identified himself as Mr. Giff, and he said the bigger plane would be fine and I explained that there would be an additional fee and I also asked him, what type of payments are you talking about? And he said; Cash. So I left at 11:30 p.m. and shortly after I called Mr. Downs at his home and told him that we had a charter at 1:00 a.m. to Atlanta. Type of flight would be to take two passengers down and turn around and bring one passenger back.

Then I told Mr. Downs that I would need him at the airport at approximately 12:00 o'clock, 12 midnight. I arrived at the airport at twelve and Mr. Downs had just arrived just shortly before I arrived here and we filled out our flight plans to Atlanta, instrument flight plan which was flight 1001, and we got the aircraft out and fueled it and made necessary preparations to go.

On this particular flight I am certified as co-pilot and Mr. Downs was the captain in command.

Mr. Downs and I went out into the hanger and checked the aircraft and we noticed the door was opened on it and baggage was already on board the aircraft. I noticed a suit bag was on and there was a little metal box on the aircraft which I didn't notice until the aircraft was pulled around in front of the hanger. Then we proceeded to wait until approximately 1:05. We got a call to the aircraft and the lineman, Lutch, I think it was [redacted] I believe, answered the phone and the party said they would be maybe 10 or 15 minutes late. Approximately or sometime after that close to 1:30 a.m. the party called back and said they would be delayed somewhere. Then the parties showed up in a Cadillac, I believe it was a Cadillac, fairly new looking Cadillac and Mr. Giffe got out of the car wanted to know where the pilots were and the plane and we said; right here. And I noticed a woman was screaming and hollering in the car and then he proceeded to show identification, I saw a badge, whether it was a police badge or not I don't know. I did see, I believe I recall seeing "police" written on his credentials and had a picture on there of Mr. Giffe. He showed some other identifications which I glanced at and had his picture on those. He informed us he was in the CIA, he was a police with the CIA and I questioned him about the girl being hysterical like she was, hollering and screaming that we couldn't have her on the airplane like that and he said, "I'm a doctor, she will get a sedative as soon as she is aboard". Then I turned to Mr. Downs and I said we had better get the police over here to check this out and then a gun was flashed on us and we were told to get aboard the aircraft.

[redacted] Now at the time that they came in were you on the outside or the inside of the building at Big Brothers?

We were in upon the building and the aircraft, outside the building.

And where had he parked his car, by the side of the sales office or the charter office at Big Brothers?

The car was parked in the back rear of the airplane.

Behind the airplane?

b6
b7C

Behind the airplane.

The girl was still in the car.

The girl was still in the car along with [redacted]

And when you suggested calling the police was when you first noticed the pistol. Is that when he flashed the pistol?

No, sir, I believe I mentioned that we had better get the police over and check the situation out before we take any people, that was when he flashed the gun.

Was this gentleman alone at that time? Was anybody with him?

The other two parties, I believe were out of the car then.

This was the lady and another man?

Yes.

At this point what did he request that you and the pilot do?

Immediately get on the aircraft.

At this time you were seated on the aircraft. You say you were not at gun point other than he had the weapon at the beginning?

He was waving it and ordered us on the aircraft and after we got onto the airplane [redacted] had a pistol in his hand. He was not hold us, that I know of, at gun point. We were looking forward starting the airplane and at times we would look back and I did notice a pistol in [redacted]'s hand and whether---it appeared to be a pistol and looked similar to the one Mr. Giffe was flashing, flourishing around or whatever--

In relationship to you and the pilot where were these other two men and the lady on the plane. Were they seated in the back could you see them, in the passenger seat?

At what the girl was forced onto the aircraft, was handled rough. She was laying down on the floor between the two seats and later on she got up into the seat or he put her up into a seat, Mr. Giffe. Mr. Giffe was in the back--rear end of the airplane with the lady and [redacted] sat on the pilot's side which is across from the door. 201

And you were in the co-pilot--

I was in the right seat which is the co-pilot seat. David was--
And Downs was in the pilots.

And Downs was in the pilot seat on the left side.

When he flashed this gun did he demand that you and G. I. S. on board the aircraft?

He said; "Get on the aircraft. We are leaving."

And at this point you all---was there anybody else present that heard him trying to force the --- [redacted] was in the area and I don't know whether he heard it or not?

All right, when you got airborne was there any conversation by Mr. Giffe and you as co-pilot or captain or the passengers? What--do you recall any conversation they had?

Well the girl was hollering and screaming shortly after we got off and he said something about he was/CIA as mentioned before. The lady hollered out; "No, he is with the Mafia". And shortly after that the girl quietened down and appeared to be in a daze the whole trip.

Did you know or did you see them around the business of Big Brother here before or see them around the plane when they first came onto the premises?

No, sir.

And you say you saw a small container when you first checked the aircraft?

After the aircraft was put onto the ramp I was checking the flash lights, making a night flight I wanted to make sure I had some flash lights available and I put my hand on a metal box that was laying up on the beverage console and it was just a small metal box about a foot in length and 6 inches wide or 8 inches wide and had three little combination dials on the front of it. This was before the parties arrived.

You didn't check this box though?

No.

Was it an unusual type box or--did you have anything on what it might have been?

No I really didn't give it any thought.

When he finished the gun action--let's go back there--did he put it back in a his pocket or coat pocket and request that you stay on the plane or did he continue to hold it in his hand--

b6
b7C

He continued to hold it in his hand.
When I seen it -- it stayed in his hand, til we were aboard the aircraft.

What about when you got aboard the aircraft, did he give you any further instructions then or did you feel you were hi-jacked going to -- or just taking a normal run to Atlanta?

We didn't really know. We were both-- I was scared and I'm sure Mr. News was somewhat scared. We just went ahead and started the plane and he said; "let's get it airborne". And this is what we proceeded to do. We were given our clearance. We asked the Nashville Tower for clearance and they gave us clearance for Atlanta and they also gave us taxi instructions to one of two runways and I don't recall the other runway but we chose to take runway 31.

In Atlanta?

No in Nashville. That was for departure, runway 31 for departure. And we taxied out to the runway and evidently our line man, [redacted] had called the security and advised them that something was unusual because the security pulled up beside the aircraft. I seen one on the right side of the aircraft with a blue light flashing and Mr. Gidde said get the airplane in the air. So I asked the tower, I said that 5377 was ready to go, runway 31 and I did not get a response, I don't believe and anyway I came back and said 5377 was taking the runway and rolling. So we departed without a clearance for takeoff.

Now when you got airborne how far did you go until--did you get some other instructions to change your flight course, say from Atlanta to Jacksonville or did the captain do this or--

We got --As soon as we got airborne I am sure the control tower knew this was an unusual flight by security being out there and of course security was talking with the tower and we were told to turn left and climb on course--I think it was left or right on course and to squawk 6100 on a transponder which is the hi-jack code and I immediately replied with 3100 and gave an ID on it and they were aware all the time that this was an unusual flight and they knew that we knew.

Who gave the instructions to change your course. I mean to a different city?

In flight somewhere between here and Atlanta. I say approximately in the area of Chattanooga they wanted to know how much fuel we had on board; how far it would go, wanted to know if we could go to Jacksonville.

How they this was ---

Mr. Giff. Mr. Giff made all the decisions aboard the aircraft. [redacted] was a go-between. He would ask Mr. Giff [redacted] it to the pilots. Then they [redacted] Jacksonville and we advised them [redacted] then we could get off and we would have 30 minutes of fuel left. So they said let's go to Jacksonville so we asked Center to give us a clearance to Jacksonville rather than Atlantic. b6 b7C

At any time did Giff come up to where you and the captain of the aircraft was?

No, sir.

He remained in the back?

He remained in the back.

What size aircraft were you flying?

Well it was a Hawk Commander, gross 9400 pound takeoff weight. It is eight passenger.

[redacted] you say when you landed you persuaded them to let you off the aircraft to see if you could talk the FBI into fuel for the aircraft? Is this correct?

We waited approximately 5 minutes on the ground because we had already advised them we were in unusual situation on unusual flight. We wanted fuel, we wanted rafts, life vests and we wanted charts to Freeport which is in the Bahamas and we also requested 200 to 300 yards clearance from airport and everything.

Now as soon as you alighted from the aircraft did the FBI apprehend you did you say?

That is true.

They carried you where?

They took me to their car which was just a short distance behind the right rear of the aircraft.

Now they placed you in the car then?

yes, sir.

At that time had they fired any shots at the aircraft.

Not that I know of.

You got into the car?

Yeah.

At this time they went back toward the aircraft?

They were in the vicinity of the car. We sat in the car for awhile and I believe the car was pulled up close to the aircraft, I don't know. They got in the car and talked and discussed and advised me definitely there were no explosives on board which I earlier had told them there was and they said that this was a bunch of idiots there is no explosives on board.

And then there was no one outside, no FBI as far as you know when you were in the car?

No.

O. K. They got back out of the car after talking with you?

[redacted] got out of the airplane approximately 5 minutes after I got out.

And that was while you were sitting in the car?

After they got out I got back out of the car again.

Leaving them in the car? Or did they--

No they went out and apprehended [redacted]

Then did they come back to the car with him?

No sir. He stayed on the ground and they kept a gun on him.

Now where were you at that time?

I was in the vicinity of the car.

Now when did the firing commence? Were you at the aircraft when they started firing? Or were you in the car?

I'm not sure I believe the firing started after [redacted] was on the ground and one of the FBI shot two --shot both of the tires, the two main tires out on the aircraft. The main gear. They started down and then the third party, which was a different FBI approached the airplane from the right and shot into the engine. It shot down shortly after that.

Now you were right near the aircraft when this happened?

yes, sir.

Then after these shots, did you hear any other shots?

I never once heard any shots from the inside of the aircraft.

When did you realize after they had -- the noise had quietened down, did the F-4s aboard or something or did they hear it?

I don't know I was on the opposite side of the aircraft from the door and I didn't see that side of the aircraft. I saw the their feet and their legs sticking out, perhaps at that time I never did see any of their men board the aircraft until they came back and told me that all three parties aboard were dead.

Did you ever go back to the aircraft after this?

I went back to the aircraft only after everybody was out.

When you left the aircraft was the captain still in the cockpit of the airplane.

The captain was still in the cockpit of the of the airplane in the captain's seat, the left seat.

And Mr. Giffé was he still in the back?

Mr. Giffé and the lady was still in the back. [redacted] was in the potty chair.

When you started off did you see any weapons on them at that time?

[redacted] had his in his hand. Mr. Giffé appeared to have had what I felt may have been the metal bar on his lap and it looked like he had his finger on something ready to push a button or something. It was dark in there and it also appeared he may have had a gun in his right hand. I felt I may get shot when I went out the door even though I was told to go out and talk to them. Did he give you any specific instructions as you were leaving the plane?

[redacted] was there drinking on board while you were in flight by [redacted] and Mr. Giffé?

Yes, They were drinking what was House Label Beer. Mr. Giffé, I don't recall seeing him drink any beer but I do recall seeing him turn a bottle up of something, which may have been a hard liquor.

Did he ever make any threats or say what he intended to do, Mr. Giffé while you were in flight or while---or either [redacted] did he make any threats?

[redacted] never did make any threat. He said take care of the aircraft if he doesn't fly the airplane and there will be a problem. And Mr. Gagne stated if anything was wrong, the aircraft could be blown up, he had to reset and flying over 100 miles.

b6
b7C

[redacted] you state you went back to the plane after the incident occurred. Did you make any observation of the plane at this time? If so, then did you inspect the windshield to see what was going on, and the windshield had fired into, or did you inspect the captain's seat?

I seen two bullet holes in the windshield and it was broken but I believe I saw two bullet holes in the back of the captain's chair. One to the right side and one directly in the middle of it.

You did not make a real inspection or attention to these--

No sir, I just did this from the outside of the aircraft peering through the window.

In your mind do you recall how many shots you may have heard while you were out of the aircraft with the FBI? I am referring to the tires, etc.

There was approximately two shots to each tire, which would have been four shots and there were two shots I heard go through the engine.

Were there any witnesses to this there at the airport other than the FBI that was --did anybody come up?

I don't know.

Is there anything else you would like to say about it Mr. Gagne that we have not asked you?

That's about all.

One thing I will ask. It was reported that you were taken to the hospital. Is this correct? In Jacksonville?

Negative. Back up on it. It wasn't a hospital. It was the medical examiners place where they had taken Mr. Downs and I went around there and identified his body but I don't believe that was the hospital.

As a result did you have any injuries physically?

Negative.

You required no medical attention:

No.

- 17 -
And you and Mr. Brown were the only two employees of Big Brothers that were aboard the aircraft?

b6
b7C

Yes, sir.

And you had been called in your employment at Big Brothers. It is a call basis as a charter pilot is it not?

Yes, sir.

Are you subject to call anytime if you are within the proper working hours?

Yes, sir.

Your working hours varied, different working hours? Is that correct?

Yes, sir, at this time both of us had had proper rest and were ready for the flight for the charter.

You were legal for the flight,

We were legal.

FAA--As far as FAA was concerned

yes.

Anything else you would like to state that I haven't asked you?

No sir.

SUBJECT: POLICY - CRIME ABOARD
AIRCRAFT MATTERS

1 - Mr. Dalbey

1 - Mr. Ponder

GEORGE MALLORY GIFFE

In consideration of the hijacking incident at Jacksonville, Florida, on October 4, 1971, when a chartered aircraft scheduled to fly from Nashville, Tennessee, to Atlanta, Georgia, was diverted by armed hijackers and forced to land at Jacksonville where the principal hijacker then shot his wife, whom he had forced to accompany him, as well as the pilot, a thorough review has been made of Bureau policy insofar as aircraft hijackings and related crimes are concerned. This review was conducted by the General Investigative Division in conjunction with the Inspection Division and Mr. Dalbey's office.

Current policy reflects our experience in the aircraft hijacking field since 1961. It has been updated from time to time so as to cope with changing situations and trends. From the outset however, there was one basic concept in our approach to this problem--that being our primary concern was the safety of the passengers and crew. Specifically, instructions state:

Hon. Senator John Tunney
Washington, D C

Dear Senator,

This morning while looking through the L.A. Times I saw something that both sickened and appalled me.

A pilot Brent Q Downs was forced by a hijacker to take him someplace. He went to Jacksonville Int'l for refueling and found there was no fuel truck. Instead some F B I. agents were there because they decided to break up the hijacking. They broke it up alright but the pilot was killed in the meantime.

Perhaps you have read The Poisoners by Donald Hamilton one quote about the F. B. I. "... your job is defending the laws and to hell with the people." (P. 115) I thought that Hamilton was exaggerating when he wrote this but as it turns out he was more right than me.

If any police force whether it be local, state, or national does not have the safety of the public foremost in its mind then I feel that police force should be thoroughly checked

Very truly yours,

167-2070-2010

If we are to survive as a nation, we must challenge the attitude of those who have been selling America short...who want to destroy, who want rights without responsibilities, and who encourage disrespect for law and order.

We live in a period of stress and turmoil...in times that demand spiritual strength and moral fortitude. If this country is going to wage an effective war against crime, it cannot be done by lessening the severity of the present laws but by enforcing them.

This nation's greatness and our freedom are based solidly on respect for the law.

Difficult and trying days lie ahead. The FBI, undaunted and ever mindful of its obligations to the American people, faces the uncertain future with confidence and determination. This is our pledge to you who have given us your loyal support and made important contributions to the success of the FBI.

The going will be tough...however, when the going gets tough, the tough get going.

The publication of drivel, while admittedly a right -- is not the best way of discharging the precious responsibilities of a free press.

Criticism, of course, is essential in our democratic society...but criticism, to be valid, must be based on knowledge and a desire to correct deficiencies. The foundation of any news media should be truth, objectivity, and justice.

Criticism without basis is demoralizing and serves the interests of those subversives and criminals who seek to serve only themselves and not democracy. No man has the inherent right to place himself above and beyond the law, even though he may personally consider that law to be onerous.

It is time for the voices of logic and decency to be heard and to make their influence felt.

People of goodwill must rededicate themselves to building greater public respect for and confidence in law enforcement in the crucial role it plays in our survival.

We are citizens of the greatest nation on the face of the earth. We enjoy the most envied way of life known to man.

I would be less than candid if I were to maintain that there are no longer incompetent policemen and abuses of police power, for the record shows otherwise. Unfortunately, the one bad police officer, the one who commits that isolated act of brutality, turns up among thousands of outstanding men, and becomes the symbol of all policemen rather than the exception that he is.

Extremists and hate groups which are committed to violence use allegations of police brutality and repression as an excuse for their malicious activities and to discredit the entire law enforcement profession.

Incredible as it may seem, there have been instances in which the news media, particularly television, have accepted without question wildly improbable allegations made by hate groups against the police and, even when the facts have been readily accessible, certain segments of the media have, for whatever reason, chosen to ignore and disregard them. Unfortunately, the truth never seems to catch up with the "big lie," and even if it does, it is too late to undo the harm that has been done in denigrating the forces of law enforcement.

journalistic prostitutes who in their jaundiced outlook upon realities and truth attribute the increase in crime as somehow the fault of the FBI or the result of inadequate performance by it. They do not merely skirt but ignore completely the fact that the overwhelming part of the increase in crime has been in areas where the FBI has neither the authority nor jurisdiction, namely at the local and State level.

As Abraham Lincoln once said, "When you see a lot of different people all popping off to the same effect at the same time, you have very good reason to believe that a concerted campaign is afoot."

While intemperate voices raise cries of police brutality and police repression with little to support their contention, there are others who regard the use of science, the computer, and other technical advances as a potential threat to their freedom.

To serve the public properly in a society that grows ever more complex, to contend with the criminal who becomes ever more mobile, law enforcement, to succeed, must continue to seek improvement in its training, methods, and techniques.

Justice is not served when innocent victims and society suffer while the vicious criminal goes free.

Justice cannot be served when the rights of society are trampled in our courts by overindulgent judges and misguided attorneys whose overriding concern for the criminal and obsession with legal technicalities have all too often distorted the true meaning and purpose of our constitutional guarantees.

Justice cannot be served as long as penal institutions fail to rehabilitate and conditions continue to exist in our revolving-door systems of parole and probation whereby convicted felons are unleashed on society, more eminently qualified to resume a life of crime than when they were imprisoned.

It is time we stopped coddling the hoodlums and the hippies who are causing so much serious trouble these days. Let us treat them like the vicious enemies of society that they really are regardless of their age. Let the punishment fit the crime, not the age.

Justice is not a separate thing -- it is inherent in law and order.

Nor can justice be served as long as there are some who suggest and others who believe that law enforcement itself is a sinister threat to our free society. There are a few rights and restricting freedom when it responds to protect society from vile depredations.

Society, to survive, must protect itself from the lawbreaker. Of course, there are some who maintain that to imprison a criminal, to place him behind bars, is to dehumanize him.

Incarceration for the lawbreaker is certainly no more dehumanizing than a rationale that would have us believe that man is without fault and should not be held responsible for his deeds...that he is a helpless victim of forces that he can neither master nor control...that he is in effect a mindless brute who, while he walks erect, is really no different from the savage beast.

Warped and distorted concepts such as these only serve to encourage the lawless and erode the moral and spiritual strength of our Nation.

Too long we have concerned ourselves with the plight of the criminal. We have coddled him, we have shown him our compassion, our mercy and our leniency and, unrepentant, he has shown us his contempt.

thing to say, it must nevertheless be said: A thing not too dissimilar from Hitler Youth has been abroad upon the campuses, and elsewhere in this country.

They have twisted and perverted rights into license of intellectual terrorism, into a conscious subversion of lawful national purposes constitutionally arrived at.

The U. S. Supreme Court has said, "Civil government cannot let any group ride roughshod over others simply because their 'consciences' tell them to do so."

Disregard for law and order is the anarchistic banner of those who want the rule of no rule...who profanely proclaim that all of the values of the past have failed mankind and that real progress can only be achieved by discarding tradition, demolishing our democratic institutions, and ultimately destroying our existent society.

Disregard for law and order is the stock-in-trade of vicious hoodlums who are encouraged to think and act as if they are without fault, but who suffer from spiritual malnutrition.

It is the end product of a chaotic philosophy which maintains that there is no such thing as right or wrong, guilt or innocence, and which accuses responsible authority of violating

I am sure there are some in this room who may have known or worked with one or several of these heroic men. All of you have shared their hardships and dangers and we can be grateful that the toll in human life hasn't been greater.

The hazards of being a law enforcement officer...an FBI Agent...continue to increase at an alarming rate as certain elements in our society are determined to defy lawful authority and are encouraged in it by some vituperative segments of the news media.

Despite the fact that FBI Agents act in self-defense and use firearms only as a last resort...armed criminals, displaying shocking contempt for authority and human life, have engaged our personnel in 67 gun battles since 1966. In addition...during a recent 12-month period, no less than 105 Bureau Agents were assaulted while fulfilling their official responsibilities.

Disregard for law and order is encouraged by hate-mongers, extremists, and others who assert that revolution against society is justified and necessary...and that men should be permitted to murder, rob, loot, and pillage with impunity to achieve their goals.

Some of us are old enough to remember the hoarse, terrifying, mindless roars of Hitler Youth; and though it is a frightful

Maybe those of us in the FBI are narrow-minded when we frown on indiscretions involving unmarried couples... Maybe we are intolerant when we refuse to permit our personnel to participate in the activities of groups and organizations that are hostile to our government... Maybe we are old-fashioned when we frown upon extreme hair styles and wearing apparel. If we are, I am confident that you and the majority of the American people share our views.

The Bureau's achievements over the years have been the direct result of the kind of men and women who have served in the FBI... people like you... clean-cut, highly intelligent, dedicated Americans of the finest moral character who are totally loyal to their country and to the organization for which they work.

We have exacting standards in the FBI and we apologize to no one for them. We have no intention of arbitrarily compromising these standards to accommodate kooks, misfits, drunks, and slobs... Were we to do so, you may be sure we would eventually merit the unwarranted criticism we now receive.

Over the years, law enforcement, including the FBI, has borne the brunt of criminal violence. Twenty-three Special Agents, whose memories we revere, made the supreme sacrifice.

This, of course, is the fervent wish of some of my more virulent critics. One of them...his name escapes me for the moment...has apparently fallen off his merry-go-round once too often.

Last spring he spent considerable time sifting through my garbage. I'm not complaining, mind you. In fact, my only reason for mentioning it is that I understand he is becoming increasingly confused between the trash he examines and the trash he writes.

Remarkably consistent in his disregard for the truth, my personal garbage sorter recently alleged that I had censured and transferred an FBI Agent because he was not properly attired at the time he killed an armed hijacker holding a stewardess hostage at the Kennedy Airport in New York.

You may be sure that no such censure has ever included anything like the commendation and the $500 check that this cool-headed young man received for averting what could have been a real tragedy. Under the circumstances, is it any wonder that there are some who question the accuracy, no less the integrity and motives of some so-called news scavengers?

SOCIETY OF FORMER SPECIAL AGENTS OF THE FBI, INC.

WASHINGTON, D. C.
OCTOBER 22, 1971

It is a pleasure to be able to participate this evening in the festivities marking the 25th Anniversary of the Washington Chapter of the Society of Former Special Agents of the FBI. It is particularly fitting that such a significant event is being commemorated in this superb setting.

As you are aware, a new Headquarters for the Bureau is very gradually emerging from the ground on Pennsylvania Avenue across the street from the Justice Building. One local newsman has compared it to the building of a "Great Pyramid." I feel I must disagree with his observation...I am convinced that the ancient Egyptians were able to build their pyramids in far less time than it is taking to erect our new building.

There are some who maintain that the only reason I am staying on as Director of the FBI is to be present at the dedication. This is absolute nonsense. At the rate the building is going up, none of us will be around by the time it is completed.

"QUESTIONS SENT IN HIJACKING." THE ARTICLE, WRITTEN BY PAT WELCH, STATES ATTORNEY FOR BIG BROTHERS AIRCRAFT AND MRS. BRENT DOWNS MAILED
LIST OF SIXTY QUESTIONS TO ^{U. S. DISTRICT JUDGE} ~~USDC~~ FRANK GRAY, JR. ON NOV. TWENTYTHREE
LAST TO COMPLY WITH GRAY'S ORDER OF "SPECIFIC" QUESTIONS FOR FBI AGENTS.
GILBERT S. MERRITT WAS QUOTED AS SAYING ONE OF QUESTIONS IS WHETHER FBI AGENTS WERE AWARE OF A "SECRET SIGNAL" BY DOWNS THAT HE WANTED NO ARMED INTERFERENCE WITH HIS AIRCRAFT. THE ARTICLE STATES
MERRITT SAID RANDALL CRUMP SAID DOWNS INTENTIONALLY LEFT THE WING
FLAPS "DOWN" AFTER HIS LANDING IN JACKSONVILLE AS A SIGNAL USED BY

MERRITT WAS QUOTED AS SAYING THE LIST OF QUESTIONS WERE MAILED TO THE COURT TO COMPLY WITH JUDGE GRAY'S ORDER TO PROVIDE A MORE DETAILED SUMMARY OF QUESTIONS THEY WISHED TO ASK FBI AGENTS. THE ARTICLE ALSO STATES THAT GRAY RULED ON NOV. ELEVEN LAST THAT FBI AGENTS MAY BE QUESTIONED. THE ARTICLE ALSO REFERS TO AN EARLIER FILING BY MERRITT OF THE TEXT OF AN ADDRESS BY J. GENERAL INVESTIGATIVE DIVISION

Attached concerns the civil suit against the Bureau concerning the 10/4/71 hijacking of the private chartered flight from Nashville, Tennessee, to Jacksonville, Florida, wherein subject Giffe shot and killed his wife, the pilot, and then committed suicide. Motions were filed by ; the plaintiffs' attorney requesting access to evidence and to interview witnesses, particularly the FBI Agents. The U. S. District Judge in Nashville denied access to evidence and requested written interrogations be submitted to him before he ruled whether or not the plaintiff would be allowed to question FBI Agents. This teletype discloses a newspaper in Nashville today printed an article with a list of 60 questions the attorney for the plaintiff has requested the judge to compel FBI Agents to answer. These questions concern the Agents' knowledge of existing facts surrounding the hijacking at the time the plane was disabled.

This is another example of plaintiffs' attorney [redacted] attempting to try this case in the newspapers. This will be brought to the attention of the Criminal Division, Department of Justice. This matter is being closely followed.
